This handbook is designed to provide students with information about the programs of study at Centra College of Nursing ("College"). It sets forth, in general, how the College operates but the College reserves the right to change policies and procedures without notice. This handbook is not intended to be and should not be regarded as a contract between the College and any student or other person. Students are held responsible for knowing the information contained in the Catalog & Student Handbook. Failure to read or comply with the Handbook will not excuse the student from accountability. Changes are communicated via the website and the Learning Management System (LMS).

RE-ADMISSION POLICY

A.D.N. & R.N.-B.S.N. Program

Any re-admissions following withdrawal/dismissal/termination are granted on a space available basis. Petitions for re-admission will be accepted after a one (1) year time period has elapsed. The student should notify the Academic Director for the appropriate nursing program in writing of a desire to re-enter the nursing program at CCON. If accepted for re-admission, the student must resume nursing courses from the beginning of the curriculum with no credits for any prior coursework.

Petitions for re-admission must be made in writing to the Academic Director for the appropriate nursing program. This written request must include any extenuating circumstances, if applicable. The student desiring re-admission must meet all admission requirements set forth by the College of Nursing at the time of their application. One nursing course failure following re-admission will result in dismissal with no future option for re-admission.

The A.D.N. Program is implementing a concept-based curriculum in the fall of 2018. This curriculum is part of evidence-based practice recommendations for the program.

A.D.N. Students: One Failure 300 level: Spring 2019:

A.D.N. students that are unsuccessful in one course in the 300 level will be able to return in fall of 2019. The students will be required to take both 3rd semester courses for the new concept-based curriculum (NUR 240, NUR 250) in fall of 2019. Students will be responsible for the purchase of required textbooks, IPAD, Elsevier and any other necessary course material deemed necessary for successful learning in the course.

A.D.N. Students: One Failure 400 level: Fall 2019:

A.D.N. students that are unsuccessful in one course in the 400 level will be able to return in spring of 2020. The students will be required to take both 4th semester courses of the new concept-based curriculum (NUR 260, NUR 270) in spring of 2020. Students will be responsible for the purchase of required textbooks, IPAD, Elsevier and any other necessary course material deemed necessary for successful learning in the course.

A.D.N. Students: One Failure 1st semester of Concept-Based Curriculum: Spring 2019

A.D.N. students that are unsuccessful in one course in the 1st semester courses will be able to return in fall of 2020. The student will be required to repeat the course for completion prior to progression of the 2nd semester courses of the concept-based curriculum.

A.D.N. Students: One Failure 2nd semester of Concept-Based Curriculum: Spring 2019

A.D.N. students that are unsuccessful in one course in the 2nd semester courses will be able to return in fall of 2020. The student will be required to repeat the course for completion prior to progression of the 3rd semester courses of the concept-based curriculum.

Fall 2019: Admission Policy A.D.N. Students:

Students who are unsuccessful in two A.D.N. courses and wish to apply to the P.N. Program may do so by May 31, 2019. The Administrative Leadership Team will meet over the summer break to review applicants on a case by case basis and if accepted into the P.N. Program, will determine appropriate placement within the curriculum.

P.N. Program

Any re-admissions following withdrawal/dismissal/termination are granted on a space available basis. Practical Nursing students who fail two courses can reapply for admission the next time a new cohort will begin with no guaranteed of admission. The student should notify the Academic Director in writing of a desire or intent to re-enter the Practical Nursing program. This written request must include any extenuating circumstances, if applicable. The student desiring re-admission must meet all admission requirements set forth by the College of Nursing at the time of their application. If accepted for re-admission, the student must resume nursing courses from the beginning of the curriculum with no credits for any prior coursework. If the student is admitted again and is unsuccessful in the program a second time, with two course failures, there will be a two (2) year time period before the student can reapply to the Practical Nursing program.

The P.N. Program is implementing a concept-based curriculum in the fall of 2018. This curriculum is part of evidence-based practice recommendations for the program.
